

Sea Harvest Graduate in Training Programme 2024: Launch Your Career

Description

Ladismith Cheese proudly presents its Graduate in Training Programme 2024, designed to nurture the talents of young professionals eager to excel in their respective fields. Through meticulously structured training, we aim to empower high-potential individuals, providing a diverse range of employment and development prospects within our company.

Qualifications

Key Points:

- Tailored 12-month programme for graduates to gain valuable work experience.
- Openings available in various fields, including BCOM Accounting.
- Applicants must hold a Bachelor's Degree, completed between 2022 and 2023, with fluency in Afrikaans.
- Essential attributes include adaptability, resilience, innovation, and a proactive approach.
- Required skills encompass strong analytical abilities, leadership, computer literacy, attention to detail, and effective communication.
- Interested candidates should submit a comprehensive application including CV, certified copies of ID and academic certificates, and university transcripts to recruitment@ladismithcheese.co.za.

Hiring organization

Sea Harvest

Employment Type

Intern

Job Location

Western Cape, 8001, Western Cape, South Africa, ZA

Working Hours

09

Base Salary

R 56.26 R - Base Salary
R 83.08 R

Date posted

March 3, 2024

Valid through

03.03.2026